

Does your child need help with reading?

Florida offers families a free program to help build kids' reading skills.

New Worlds Reading is a state-funded program that mails eligible VPK – 5th graders free books and resources in English, Spanish, Haitian Creole, or braille. There's no income requirement to participate!

Eligible kids can get:

- 9 books that you choose each school year
- Reading activities and resources to build their literacy skills
- A special summer edition of Highlights or High Five magazine
