4 EDUCATIONAL ADVOCACY

- AIM partners with schools and families to strengthen Social-Emotional Learning (SEL) within the educational setting. Advocacy services focus on helping children develop the skills they need to succeed both academically and socially.

5 CREATIVE INTERVENTIONS

- Our services use hands-on interventions to build social-emotional skills through active connection. In a supportive, structured environment, clients practice these skills using art, therapeutic games, role-play, storytelling, movement, and sensory tools.

6 COMPREHENSIVE FAMILY SYSTEMS APPROACH

- AIM's Comprehensive Family Systems Approach recognizes that lasting change happens through relationships. Through parent support, family sessions, and skill-building, we address conflict patterns and equip every family member with practical tools. Our goal is to strengthen communication, foster a regulated home environment, and improve connection.

7 DEDICATED & SKILLED AIM CLINICIANS

- At AIM, our team of dedicated, highly skilled clinicians brings a diverse range of specializations to meet your family's unique treatment needs.
- We believe in matching every client with the right expert to ensure the most effective, personalized care.
