What is the FAFSA?

The Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is the federal form that helps students qualify for grants, scholarships, and low-interest loans for college or career training.

Collier Community Foundation

Applying for scholarships is simple—complete one application to be considered for multiple scholarships! CCF manages 80+ opportunities to assist students in Collier County and beyond in reaching their educational goals.

Collaboratory

The Collaboratory Scholarship Program provides financial support to students throughout SWFL. Through the generosity of donors, the program connects students with over 170 scholarship opportunities that support their future success!

Things to Bring With You

- Student and Parent Contributors' FSA IDs and passwords
- Student Social Security Cards (SSC) and Alien Registration Number (If applicable)
- Student and Parent 2025 Federal Income Taxes
- Student will need to know the Contributors' Date of Birth, email address, and SSN (mailing address if the Contributors do not have a SSN)
