THEATRE

Confidence Begins on the Stage

Young performers can explore acting, musical theatre, improv, singing, scene study and more. Through storytelling, movement and performance, students build confidence, strengthen communication skills and discover the excitement of bringing characters to life.

DIGITAL ARTS

Turn Creative Ideas into Digital Experiences

Students can explore digital painting, photography, photo editing and game design while learning to use industry-standard creative tools. Hands-on projects help young creators develop technical skills, visual storytelling abilities and confidence in the digital arts.

VISUAL ARTS

Imagine It. Create It. Make It Your Own.

From drawing, painting and mixed media to clay, sculpture and character design, young artists can experiment with materials while developing essential creative skills. Classes are available for ages 4–15, with projects designed for every stage of artistic growth.

VOCAL ENSEMBLE

Inspire Young Musicians

Discover and develop your vocal and instrumental talents. Focus on essential techniques such as pitch, rhythm, breath control and tone. Whether preparing for a stage performance or enjoying the process of making music, vocal ensemble provides a dynamic space for young artists to flourish.
