Student Upstanders Against Hate

Today, antisemitism is being normalized and ranges from Jewish people being threatened in public to acts of violence being committed against Jewish places of worship and individuals on the street. Antisemitic incidents are even occurring at school and on college campuses. Since 2020, incidents in K-12 schools have increased by 434% .

The goal of the Student Upstanders Against Hate workshop is to help students identify antisemitic incidents when they occur and give them the tools to become allies to their Jewish peers. Participants will learn about the Jewish history and culture, the history of antisemitism, and about media literacy - how to analyze and respond to different forms of media and to think critically and react responsibly in a digital world. Students will learn real-world strategies on how to safely take an active role in combatting hatred on their campuses and in their communities.

Every student will receive a $500 scholarship for participating and completing a short essay about what they learn.

What is antisemitism?

Antisemitism
hatred, prejudice,
